

Boeing maintains policies, procedures and systems that advocate the highest level of compliance with U.S. Government regulations.

1. Boeing-designated Empowered Officials, under the terms and conditions of Code of Federal Regulations 22 CFR § 120.25, certify that transactions and information submitted by Boeing meet the requirements of International Traffic in Arms Regulations (subchapter M of chapter I of title 22, CFR parts 120-130).
2. Boeing maintains a current and valid registration with the Directorate of Defense Trade Controls (DDTC); the company's current registration is valid through November 30, 2018.
3. Boeing maintains compliance programs consistent with DDTC Compliance Program Guidelines and the Department of Commerce Bureau of Industry and Security Compliance Guidelines.

August, 2015