DELEGATION OF MATERIAL REVIEW AUTHORITY – 96X0005

Material Review Authority is hereby granted on this contract in accordance with the requirements of Report 96X0005. Delegation of Material Review Authority is subject to Seller's approval status as described in Report 96X0005.

Seller's Material Review Authority on Buyer-designed, build-to-print items applies only to those items/programs identified in the Material Review Authority (MRA) delegation letter, even though this requirement may appear on contracts for items/programs other than those listed in the delegation letter.

Report 96X0005 is located at the following URL:

Seller shall use the Report as specified in the latest version of the MRA delegation letter.

This requirement shall take precedence over other nonconformance processing requirements included in this contract except as specified within Report 96X0005.

Seller shall notify Buyer in writing when discrepancies in Seller's process or Goods are discovered or suspected regarding Goods delivered or to be delivered under this contract.
