

DELEGATION OF BUYER SOURCE INSPECTION

Seller is delegated authority to perform Buyer source inspection of Goods for Buyer's location delegating this authority. Seller remains responsible for furnishing Goods that conform to requirements of this contract.

Seller is subject to any additional requirements or limitations related to this authority as communicated by Buyer's location delegating this authority, and Buyer may revoke this authority at any time.

Buyer reserves the right to perform inspection and product verification on Goods affected by this authority. Seller's process for performing Buyer source inspection is subject to Buyer's review.