

Q833 Non-Destructive Examination (NDE) Certification - rev 3/6/01

The Seller shall include a certification, signed by the authorized company representative who performed the contractually-specified NDE, with each invoiced product shipment to The Boeing Company. The certification must confirm that the required NDE has been performed and the results are acceptable in accordance with the applicable procurement specification(s). A record of the NDE procedures/techniques used, and the actual examination results, must remain on file, at the Seller, for at least four (4) years after invoiced shipment to The Boeing Company. The retained record(s) must, upon request, be made available to The Boeing Company. The furnished NDE certification must include the specification(s), and revision(s) thereto, utilized in the performance of the specified examination(s).
