CUSTOMER CONTRACT REQUIREMENTS

The following customer contract requirements apply to this contract to the extent indicated below. If this contract is for the procurement of commercial items under a Government prime contract, as defined in FAR Part 2.101, see Section 3 below.

1. FAR Clauses The following contract clauses are incorporated by reference from the Federal Acquisition Regulation and apply to the extent indicated. In all of the following clauses, "Contractor" and "Offeror" mean Seller.

52.203-6 Restrictions on Subcontractor Sales to the Government (Sep 2006) Alternate I (OCT 1995). This clause applies only if this contract exceeds $150,000.

52.203-7 Anti-Kickback Procedures (MAY 2014). Buyer may withhold from sums owed Seller the amount of any kickback paid by Seller or its subcontractors at any tier if (a) the Contracting Officer so directs, or (b) the Contracting Officer has offset the amount of such kickback against money owed Buyer under the prime contract. This clause, excluding subparagraph (c)(1), applies only if this contract exceeds $150,000.

52.203-8 Cancellation, Rescission, and Recovery of Funds for Illegal or Improper Activity (MAY 2014). This clause applies to this contract if the Seller, its employees, officers, directors or agents participated personally and substantially in any part of the preparation of a proposal for this contract. The Seller shall indemnify Buyer for any and all losses suffered by the Buyer due to violations of the Act (as set forth in this clause) by Seller or its subcontractors at any tier.

52.203-10 Price or Fee Adjustment for Illegal or Improper Activity (MAY 2014). This clause applies only if this contract exceeds $150,000. If the Government reduces Buyer's price or fee for violations of the Act by Seller or its subcontractors at any tier, Buyer may withhold from sums owed Seller the amount of the reduction.

52.203-12 Limitation on Payments to Influence Certain Federal Transactions (OCT 2010). This clause applies only if this contract exceeds $150,000. Paragraph (g)(2) is modified to read as follows: "(g)(2) Seller will promptly submit any disclosure required (with written notice to Boeing) directly to the PCO for the prime contract. Boeing will identify the cognizant Government PCO at Seller's request. Each subcontractor certification will be retained in the subcontract file of the awarding contractor."

52.203-13 Contractor Code of Business Ethics and Conduct (OCT 2015). This clause applies only if this contract is in excess of $5,500,000 and has a period of performance of more than 120 days.

52.203-14 Display of Hotline Poster(s) (OCT 2015). This clause applies only if this contract exceeds $5,500,000 and is not for a commercial item or is performed entirely outside the United States. For the purposes of this clause, the United States is defined as the 50 states, the District of Columbia, and outlying areas.

52.203-17 Contractor Employee Whistleblower Rights and Requirement to Inform Employees of Whistleblower Rights (APR 2014). This clause applies only if this contract exceeds $150,000.

Performance Work Statement Requirements .

1. Government Technical Group

1.1 The Air Force has entered into a contract with the following contractors for the services of a technical group, which support the DoD program office by performing Technical Review tasks: TASC (FA8807-16-C-0001), Booz Allen Hamilton (N66001-D-0106), Tecelote Research Incorporated (FA8802-13-D-0001).

1.2 Technical Review is the process of appraising the technical performance of Seller through meetings, exchanging information on progress and problems, reviewing reports, evaluating presentations, reviewing hardware and software, witnessing and evaluating tests, analyzing plans for future work, evaluating efforts relative to contract technical objectives, and providing comments and recommendations in writing to the Air Force Manager as an independent technical assessment for his consideration for modifying the program or redirecting Seller's efforts to assure timely and economical accomplishment of program objectives.

1.3 In the performance of this contract, Seller agrees to cooperate with the contractors identified in paragraph 1.1 and any subcontractors, by responding to invitations from authorized personnel to attend meetings; by providing access to technical information and research, development and planning data such as, but not limited to, design and development analyses; test data and results; equipment and process specifications; test and test equipment specifications and procedures, parts and quality control procedures, records and data; manufacturing and assembly procedures; and schedule and milestone data, all in their original form or reproduced form; by delivering as specified in the Contract Data Requirements List (CDRL); by discussing technical matters relating to this program; by providing access to Seller facilities utilized in the performance of this contract; and by allowing observation of technical activities by appropriate technical support personnel. The support personnel engaged in technical review effort are authorized access to any technical information pertaining to the contract and are bound by their respective Non-Disclosure Agreements (NDAs) with the Government to protect the information they receive.

1.4 Seller further agrees to include in each subcontract, if applicable, a clause requiring compliance by the subcontractor and succeeding levels of subcontractors with the response and access provisions of paragraph 1.3 above, subject to coordination with the Seller. This agreement does not relieve Seller of his responsibility to manage the subcontracts effectively and efficiently nor is it intended to establish privity of contract between the Government or with the contractor identified in paragraph 1.1 and such subcontractors.

1.5 The personnel of the contractors is identified in paragraph 1.1 are not authorized to direct Seller in any manner. Seller agrees to accept technical direction as follows:

- (1) Technical direction under this contract will be given to Seller solely by Buyer.
- (2) Whenever it becomes necessary to modify the contract and redirect the effort, it will be done in accordance with the Changes article of the Contract.

1.6 Notwithstanding language contained elsewhere in this Contract, Seller and its subcontractors shall not be obligated to disclose proprietary financial information to any non-Government entities providing services to the Government during the proposal or contract execution and management phases of this activity.

2. Systems Engineering and Integration Group

2.1 The Air Force has entered into a contract with The Aerospace Corporation, a California nonprofit corporation operating a Federally Funded Research and Development Center, for the services of a technical group, which will support the DoD program office by performing General Systems Engineering and Integration (GSE&I), Technical Review, and/or Technical Support including informing the commander or director of the various DoD organizations it supports and any U.S. Government program office of product or process defects and other relevant information, which, if not disclosed to the U.S. Government, could have adverse effects on the reliability and mission success of a U.S. Government program.

2.2 GSE&I deals with overall system definition, integration both within the system and with associated systems, analysis of system segment and subsystem design, design compromises and tradeoffs, definition of interfaces, review of hardware and software, including manufacturing and quality control, observation, review and evaluation of tests and test data, support of launch, flight test, and orbital operations, appraisal of the contractor's technical performance through meetings with Seller and subcontractors, exchange and analysis of information on progress and problems, review of plans for future work, developing solutions to problems, technical alternatives for reduced program risk, providing comments and recommendations in writing to the DoD System Program Manager and Project Officer as an independent technical assessment for consideration for modifying the program or redirecting Seller's efforts, all to the extent necessary to assure timely and economical accomplishment of program objectives consistent with mission requirements.

2.3 Technical Review includes the process of appraising the technical performance of the Seller through meetings, exchanging information on progress and problems, reviewing reports, evaluating presentations, reviewing hardware and software, witnessing and evaluating tests, analyzing plans for future work, evaluating efforts relative to contract technical objectives, and providing comments and recommendations in writing to the Air Force Program Manager as an independent technical assessment for his consideration for modifying the program or redirecting the Seller's efforts to assure timely and economical accomplishment of program objectives.

2.4 Technical Support deals with broad areas of specialized needs of customers for planning, system architecting, research and development, horizontal engineering, or analytical activities for which The Aerospace Corporation is uniquely qualified by virtue of its specially qualified personnel, facilities, or corporate memory. The categories of technical support tasks are: Selected Research, Development, Test, and Evaluation; Plans and System Architecture; Multi-Program Systems Enhancement; International Technology Assessment; and Acquisitions Support.

2.5 In the performance of this contract, Seller agrees to cooperate with The Aerospace Corporation by responding to invitations from authorized U.S. Government personnel to attend meetings; by providing access to technical information and research, development planning data such as, but not limited to, design and development analyses; test data and results; equipment and process specification; test and test equipment specification and procedures, parts and quality control procedures, records and data; manufacturing and assembly procedures; and schedule and milestone data; all in their original form or reproduced form and including top-level life cycle cost data, where available*; by delivering data as specified in the Contract Data Requirements List; where available; by discussing technical matters relating to this program; by providing access to Seller facilities utilized in the performance of this contract; and by allowing observation of technical activities by appropriate Aerospace technical personnel. The Aerospace personnel engaged in general systems engineering and integration, Technical Review, and/or Technical Support efforts: (i) are authorized access to all such technical information (including proprietary information) pertaining to this contract and may discuss and disclose it to the applicable DoD personnel in a program office; (ii) are authorized to discuss and disclose such technical information (including proprietary information) to the commander or director of the various DoD organizations it supports and any U.S. Government personnel in a program office which, if not disclosed to the U.S. Government, could have adverse effects on the reliability and mission success of a U.S. Government program; and (iii) Aerospace shall make the technical information (including proprietary information) available only to its Trustees, officers, employees, contract labor, consultants, and attorneys who have a need to know.

2.6 Seller further agrees to include in all subcontracts a clause requiring compliance by subcontractor and supplier and succeeding levels of subcontractors and suppliers with the response and access and disclosure provisions of paragraph 2.5 above, subject to coordination with the Seller, except for subcontracts for commercial item or commercial services. This agreement does not relieve Seller of its responsibility to manage the subcontracts effectively and efficiently nor is it intended to establish privity of contract between the Government or The Aerospace Corporation and such subcontractors or suppliers, except as indicated in paragraph 2.7 below.

2.7 The Aerospace Corporation shall protect the proprietary information of Seller, subcontractors, and suppliers in accordance with the Master NDA The Aerospace Corporation entered into with the Air Force, a copy which is available upon request. This Master NDA satisfies the NDA requirements set forth in 10 U.S.C 2320 (f)(2)(B) and provides that such Sellers, subcontractors, and suppliers are intended third-party beneficiaries under the Master NDA and shall have the full rights to enforce the terms and conditions of the Master NDA directly against The Aerospace Corporation, as if they had been signatory party hereto. Each such Seller, subcontractor, or supplier hereby waives any requirement for The Aerospace Corporation to enter into any separate company-to-company confidentiality or other NDAs.

2.8 The Aerospace Corporation shall make the technical information (including proprietary information) available only to its Trustees, officers, employees, contract labor, consultants, and attorneys who have a need to know, and Aerospace shall maintain between itself and the foregoing binding agreements of general application as may be necessary to fulfill their obligations under the Master NDA referred to herein, and Aerospace agrees that it will inform Seller, subcontractors, and suppliers if it plans to use consultants, or contract labor personnel and, upon the request of such Seller, subcontractor, or supplier, to have its consultants and contract labor personnel execute NDAs directly therewith.

2.9 The Aerospace Corporation personnel are not authorized to direct Seller in any manner. The contractor agrees to accept technical direction as follows:

- (1) Technical direction under this contract will be given to Seller solely by Buyer.
- (2) Whenever it becomes necessary to modify the contract and redirect the effort, it will be done in accordance with the Changes article of the Contract.

*Cost data is defined as information associated with the programmatic elements or life cycle (concept, development, production, operations, and retirement) of the system/program. As defined, cost data differs from "financial" data, which is defined as information associated with the internal workings of a company or contractor that is not specific to a project or program.

3. Accident Reporting and Investigation

3.1 Seller shall report promptly to Buyer all pertinent facts relating to each accident involving mission support equipment being manufactured, modified, or repaired in connection with this contract.

3.2 If the Government conducts an investigation of the accident, Seller shall cooperate and assist the Government's personnel until the investigation is complete.

3.3 Seller shall include a clause in subcontracts, if applicable, under this contract to require subcontractors to report accidents to Buyer (through Seller) as soon as practicable and to provide cooperation and assistance in accident investigations.
