5. The following prime contract special provisions apply to this purchase order:

A. 5352.227-9000 EXPORT-CONTROLLED DATA RESTRICTIONS (AFMC)
(Jul 1997)

(IAW AFMCFARS 5327.9002(a))

(a) For the purpose of this clause,

(1) Foreign person is any person who is not a citizen or national of the U.S. or lawfully admitted to the U.S. for permanent residence under the Immigration and Nationality Act, and includes foreign corporations, international organizations, and foreign governments;

(2) Foreign representative is anyone, regardless of nationality or citizenship, acting as an agent, representative, official, or employee of a foreign government, a foreign-owned or influenced firm, corporation or person;

(3) Foreign sources are those sources (vendors, subcontractors, and suppliers) owned and controlled by a foreign person; and

(b) The Contractor shall place a clause in subcontracts containing appropriate export control restrictions, set forth in this clause.

(c) Nothing in this clause waives any requirement imposed by any other U.S. Government agency with respect to employment of foreign nationals or export controlled data and information.

(d) Equipment and technical data generated or delivered under this contract are controlled by the International Traffic In Arms Regulation (ITAR), 22 CFR Sections 121 through 128. An export license is required before assigning any foreign source to perform work under this contract or before granting access to foreign persons to any equipment and technical data generated or delivered during performance (see 22 CFR Section 125). The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer and obtain written approval of the Contracting Officer prior to assigning or granting access to any work, equipment, or technical data generated or delivered under this contract to foreign persons or their representatives. The notification shall include the name and country of origin of the foreign person or representative, the specific work, equipment, or data to which the person will have access, and whether the foreign person is cleared to have access to technical data (DoD 5220.22-M, National Industrial Security Program Operating Manual (NISPOM)).

B. ENABLING CLAUSE BETWEEN PRIME CONTRACTORS AND SERVICE CONTRACTORS

(a) The Air Force has entered into contracts with various contractors for services to provide technical, engineering, evaluation, and acquisition tasks.

(b) Service tasks involve the application of a broad range of education, skills, knowledge, and experience in many disciplines in support of weapon system acquisition tasks. Tasks involve assistance in preparing technical orders, manuals, statements of work, system specifications, contract data requirements lists, system engineering management plans, test and evaluation master plans, integrated logistic support plans, etc.; review of development/product specifications, engineering drawings, computer program listings, technical reports, configuration audits, etc.; review of development/product specifications, engineering drawings, computer program listings, technical reports, configuration audits, etc.; and advisory participation in program management, technical exchange, and group meetings. Tasks may entail appraising the technical performance of the Contractor through meetings, exchanging data, presentations, reviewing hardware and software, witnessing and evaluating tests, analyzing plans for future work, evaluating efforts relative to contract technical objectives, and providing an independent technical assessment for consideration of the Air Force Program Manager.

(c) In the performance of this contract, the Contractor agrees to cooperate with the TEAS and TAMS contractors by: providing access to technical information and research, development and planning data, test data and results, schedule and milestone data, all in original form or reproduced; discussing technical matters related to the program; providing access to Contractor facilities utilized in the performance of this contract; allowing observation of technical activities by appropriate support Contract technical personnel, and cooperating with other Government contractors when using Government facilities or equipment.

(d) The Contractor further agrees to include in each subcontract over $1 million or 10 percent of prime contract value, whichever is less, a clause requiring compliance by a subcontractor and succeeding levels of subcontractors with the response and access provisions of paragraph (c) above, subject to coordination with the Contractor. This agreement does not relieve the Contractor of responsibility to manage subcontracts effectively and efficiently, nor is it intended to establish privity of contracts between the Government or the service Contractor(s) and such subcontractors.

(e) Service Contractor personnel are not authorized to direct a Contractor in any manner.

(f) Service contracts contain an organizational conflict of interest clause that requires the service Contractors to protect the data and prohibits the service Contractors from using the data for any purpose other than that for which the data was presented.

(g) Neither the Contractor nor their subcontractors shall be required in the satisfaction of the requirements of this clause to perform any effort or supply any documentation not otherwise required by their contract or subcontract.
