ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH AND SAFETY PERFORMANCE

Boeing is committed to a life cycle approach that looks at the impact of our products and processes through the entire value chain. Boeing is committed to conducting its business in an environmentally-sustainable manner. Copies of the Boeing Company's environmental policies are available on www.boeing.com/aboutus/environment.

Boeing's expectation is that its supply base will conduct its business in an environmentally-sustainable manner which promotes environmental stewardship, respect for the health and safety, lean manufacturing and waste minimization and with full compliance with applicable laws. As part of Bidder's proposal, Bidder shall describe their environment, health, and safety policies and procedures (EH & S Plan) and how this EH &S Plan supports Boeing's environmental policies.
