Confidential Disclosure Agreement

As a condition of Buyer's agreement with the United States Government for performance of the work related to this subcontract, all Missile Defense National Team participants, including consultants and subcontractors, must enter into a corporate Confidential Disclosure Agreement ("CDA"), and their individual employees assigned to work related to this subcontract must also sign and abide by the Individual Confidential Disclosure Agreement. The Individual Limitation on Future Assignments Agreements may also be required for certain personnel. Seller shall not begin performance of the work under this subcontract unless and until it has executed the corporate Confidential Disclosure Agreement, and its employees assigned to this subcontract have executed the Individual Disclosure Agreement and Individual Limitation on Future Assignments (as required).
