

COUNTERFEIT GOODS – ELECTRONIC PARTS

With regard to any electronic parts procured by or on behalf of Seller for the Goods, Seller shall meet the following additional requirements:

- i. Seller shall have a counterfeit electronic parts control plan that meets the intent of SAE standard AS5553A (Fraudulent/Counterfeit Electronic Parts: Avoidance, Detection, Mitigation, and Disposition dated 2013-01).
- ii. If Buyer or Seller suspects that Seller has procured counterfeit electronic parts, Seller shall quarantine such parts and make them available for investigation by appropriate U.S. Government authorities.
- ii. Seller shall procure electronic parts from the Original Component Manufacturer (OCM) or its authorized (or franchised) distributor. In the event that Seller cannot procure electronic parts from the OCM or its authorized (or franchised) distributor, Seller shall obtain Buyer's written approval prior to procuring electronic parts from any party other than the OCM or its authorized (or franchised) distributors. With such request, Seller shall provide a plan for inspecting and testing such parts to ensure that they do not constitute Counterfeit Goods.
- iii. Seller shall maintain all traceability and OCM-compliance documentation for electronic parts at its facility for seven (7) years from completion of this contract, or such other period as required elsewhere in this Contract, and make such documentation available to Buyer at its request.
- iv. Seller shall include the substance of this article, including this flowdown requirement, in all subcontracts awarded by Seller for work under this Contract.
