TEST UNIT REQUIREMENT

The Goods on this Purchase Contract are subject to testing.

For the Goods, including test samples, that are considered not-for-flight as a result of this testing, the Seller shall record the serial numbers of all the sample components, where applicable, and include that information with the test data package.

The not-for-flight samples are then to be dispositioned as retained and/or scrapped in-place by the manufacturer in-accordance with the manufacturer's procedures. Not-for-flight Goods are not to be shipped to Buyer against this Purchase Contract.
