ARTICLE X: PATENT RIGHTS

A. Definitions

"Invention" means any invention or discovery which is or may be patentable or otherwise protectable under Title 35 of the United States Code.

"Made" when used in relation to any invention means the conception or first actual reduction to practice of such invention.

"Practical Application" means to manufacture, in the case of a composition of product; to practice, in the case of a process or method, or to operate, in the case of a machine or system; and in each case, under such conditions as to establish that the invention is capable of being utilized and that its benefits are, to the extent permitted by law or Government regulations, available to the public on reasonable terms.

"Subject Invention" means any invention of a Seller conceived or first actually reduced to practice in the performance of work under this Agreement.

"Background Invention" means any invention made by Seller (or its subcontractors of any tier) prior to performance of the Project Agreement or outside the scope of work performed under the Project Agreement.

B. Allocation of Principal Rights

The Seller shall retain the entire right, title and interest throughout the world to each subject invention consistent with the provisions of this Article and 35 U.S.C § 202. With respect to any Subject Invention in which the Seller retains title, the Government shall have a non-exclusive, nontransferable, irrevocable, paid-up license to practice or have practiced on behalf of the United States the Subject Invention throughout the world. The Seller may elect to provide full or partial rights that it has retained to other parties.

C. Invention Disclosure, Election of Title, and Filing of Patent Application

1. The Seller shall disclose each Subject Invention to Buyer within two (2) months after the inventor discloses it in writing to his company personnel responsible for patent matters. The disclosure to the Buyer, or with prior authorization from the Buyer, to the Government, shall be in the form of a written report and shall identify the Project Agreement under which the Invention was Made and the identity of the inventor(s). It shall be sufficiently complete in technical detail to convey a clear understanding to the extent known at the time of the disclosure, of the nature, purpose, operation, and the physical, chemical, biological or electrical characteristics of the invention. The disclosure shall also identify any publication, sale, or public use of the invention and whether a manuscript describing the invention has been submitted for publication and, if so, whether it has been accepted for publication at the time of disclosure.

2. If the Seller determines that it does not intend to retain title to any such Invention, the Seller shall notify the Government, through the Buyer, in writing, within nine (9) months of the disclosure pursuant to Paragraph 1 above. However, in any case where publication, sale or public use has initiated the one (1) year statutory period wherein valid patent protection can still be obtained in the United States, the period for such notice may be shortened the Government to a date that is no more than six (6) months prior to the end of the statutory period.

3. The Seller shall file its initial patent application (whether provisional or non-provisional) on a Subject Invention to which it elects to retain title within one (1) year after election of title or, if earlier, prior to the end of the statutory period wherein valid patent protection can be obtained in the United States after a publication, or sale or public use. The Seller may elect to file patent applications in additional countries (including with the European Patent Office and under the Patent Cooperation Treaty) within either ten (10) months of the corresponding initial patent application (whether provisional or non-provisional) or six (6) months from the date permission is granted by the Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks to file foreign patent applications, where such filing has been prohibited by a Secrecy Order.

4. After considering the position of the Buyer on behalf of the Seller, a request for extension of the time for disclosure election and filing under this Article X, Paragraph C, may be approved by USG, and USG approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

D. Conditions When the Government May Obtain Title

Upon written request from the Government, the Seller shall convey to the Government, title to any Subject Invention under any of the following conditions:

(1) If the Seller fails to disclose or elects not to retain title to the Subject Invention within the times specified in Paragraph C of this Article X; provided, that the Government may only request title within sixty (60) days after learning of the failure of the Seller to disclose or elect within the specified times.

(2) In those countries in which the Seller fails to file patent applications within the times specified in Paragraph C of this Article X; provided, that if the Seller has filed a patent application in a country after the times specified in Paragraph C of this Article X, but prior to its receipt of the written request by the Government, through the Buyer, the Seller shall continue to retain title in that country; or

(3) In any country in which the Seller decides not to continue the prosecution of any application for, to pay the maintenance fees on, or defend in reexamination or opposition proceedings on, a patent on a Subject Invention.

E. Minimum Rights to the Seller and Protection of the Seller's Right to File

The Parties agree that:

(1) The Seller shall retain a non-exclusive, royalty-free license throughout the world in each Subject Invention to which the Government obtains title. The Seller's license extends to the domestic (including Canada) subsidiaries and affiliates, if any, of the Seller and includes the right to grant sublicenses of the same scope to the extent that the Seller was legally obligated to do so at the time the Project under the Agreement was funded. The license is transferable only with the approval of the Government, except when transferred to the successor of that part of the Seller's business to which the Invention pertains. Government approval for license transfer shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(2) The Seller's domestic license may be revoked or modified by the Government to the extent necessary to achieve expeditious Practical Application of the Subject Invention pursuant to an application for an exclusive license submitted consistent with appropriate provisions at 37 CFR Part 404. The Seller's license shall not be revoked or modified in that field of use or in the geographical areas in which the Seller has achieved Practical Application and continues to make the benefits of the Invention reasonably accessible to the public. The Seller's license in any foreign country may be revoked or modified at the discretion of the Government to the extent the Seller, its licensees, or its subsidiaries or affiliates have failed to achieve Practical Application in that foreign country.

(3) Before revocation or modification of the Seller's license, the Government must furnish the Buyer under the prime OTA, and the Buyer shall forward to the Seller, a written notice of the Government's intention to revoke or modify the license, and shall be allowed thirty (30) calendar days (or such other time as may be authorized for good cause shown) after the notice to show cause why the license should not be revoked or modified.

F. Action to Protect the Government's Interest

1. The Seller shall execute or have executed and promptly deliver to the Government via the Buyer all instruments necessary to (i) establish or confirm the rights the Government has throughout the world in those Subject Inventions to which the Seller elects to retain title, and (ii) convey title to the Government when requested under Paragraph D of this Article X, and to enable the Government to obtain patent protection throughout the world in that Subject Invention.

2. The Seller agrees to require, by written agreement, that its employees working on Projects, other than clerical and non-technical employees, agree to disclose promptly in writing to personnel identified as responsible for the administration of patent, each Subject Invention Made under this Agreement. Buyer and Seller must comply with the disclosure provisions of the prime OTA's Paragraph C of Article X, and to execute all papers necessary to file the patent applications on the Subject Invention, and establish the Government's rights in the Subject Invention. The Seller acknowledges and shall instruct its employees through employee agreements or other suitable educational programs, on the importance of reporting Inventions in sufficient time to permit the filing of patent applications prior to U.S. or foreign statutory bars.

3. The Seller shall notify the Government of any decision not to continue the prosecution of a patent application, pay maintenance fees or defend in a reexamination or opposition proceeding on a patent, in any country, not less than thirty (30) days before the expiration of the response period required by the relevant patent office.

4. The Seller shall include, within the specification of any United States patent application and any patent issuing thereon covering a Subject Invention, the following statement: "This invention was made with U.S. Government support under Agreement No. W9124P-19-9-0001 awarded by the Army Contracting Command-Redstone Arsenal to the AMTC. The Government has certain rights in the invention."

G. Lower-Tier Agreements

The Seller shall include this Article X, Patent Rights, suitably modified to identify the parties, in all lower-tier agreements, regardless of tier, for experimental, development or research work.

H. Reporting on Utilization of Subject Inventions

Upon request, the Seller agrees to submit, during the term of this contract/agreement, periodic reports no more frequently than annually on the utilization of a Subject Invention or on efforts at obtaining such utilization that are being made by the Seller or its licensees or assignees. Such reports shall include information regarding the status of development, date of first commercial sale or use, gross royalties received by the Seller and such other data and information as the Government may reasonably specify. The Seller also agrees to provide additional reports as may be requested by the Government, the Buyer, in connection with any march-in proceedings undertaken by the Government in accordance with Paragraph J of this Article X. Consistent with 35 U.S.C. § 205, the Buyer agrees it shall not disclose nor grant permission for the Government to disclose such information to persons outside the Government without the permission of the Seller.

I. Preference for American Industry

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article X, the Seller shall not grant to any person the exclusive right to use or sell any Subject Invention in the United States or Canada unless such person agrees that any product embodying the Subject Invention or produced through the use of the Subject Invention shall be manufactured substantially in the United States or Canada. However, in individual cases, the requirements for such an agreement may be waived by the Government upon a showing by the Seller that reasonable but unsuccessful efforts have been made to grant licenses on similar terms to potential licensees that would be likely to manufacture substantially in the United States or that, under the circumstances, domestic manufacture is not commercially feasible.

J. March-in Rights

March-in Rights will follow the procedures set forth in 37 CFR 401.6.

The Seller agrees that, with respect to any Subject Invention in which the Seller has retained title, the Government has the right to require the Seller (through the Buyer) to grant a non-exclusive license to a responsible applicant or applicants, upon terms that are reasonable under the circumstances, and if the Seller refuses such a request, the Government has the right to grant such a license itself if the Government determines that:

(1) Such action is necessary because the Seller, assignee or licensees have not taken effective steps, consistent with the intent of this Agreement, to achieve Practical Application of the Subject Invention;

(2) Such action is necessary to alleviate health or safety needs which are not reasonably satisfied by the Seller, assignee, or their licensees;

(3) Such action is necessary to meet requirements for public use and such requirements are not reasonably satisfied by the Seller, assignee, or licensees; or

(4) Such action is necessary because the agreement required by Paragraph (I) of this Article X, Patent Rights, has not been obtained or waived or because a licensee who has the exclusive right to use or sell any Subject Invention in the United States is in the breach of such agreement.

The Government shall notify the Buyer as soon as practicable, but no later than five (5) calendar days following the exercise of any rights under this Paragraph J.

K. Opportunity to Cure

Certain provisions of Article X provide that the Government may gain title or a license to a Subject Invention by reason of the Seller's action, or failure to act, within the times required by this Article. Prior to claiming such rights (including any rights under Article X, Paragraph J), the Government will give written notice to the Seller, through the Buyer, of the Government's intent, and afford the Seller a reasonable time to cure such action or failure to act. The length of the cure period will depend on the circumstances, but in no event will be more than sixty (60) days. The Seller may also use the cure period to show good cause why the claiming of such title or right would be inconsistent with the intent of this Agreement in light of the appropriate timing for introduction of the technology in question, the relative funding and participation of the parties in the development of the Invention, and other factors.

L. Background Inventions

In no event shall the provisions set forth in this Article X apply to any Background Inventions or patents. The Seller or its subcontractors shall retain the entire right, title, and interest throughout the world to each such Background Invention and patent that each Party has brought, through the Buyer, to the Project issued under this Agreement, and the Government shall not have any rights under this Agreement to such Background Inventions and patents. Projects to be funded under this Agreement will list Background Inventions and patents anticipated to be used on the Project; such listing may be amended by the Parties as appropriate to reflect changes in such plans.

M. Survival Rights

Provisions of this Article X shall survive termination of this Agreement under Article II.

performing research activities under a Project Agreement exceed the amount obligated by the Government for that Project Agreement. If cost-sharing occurs, the liability of the Buyer or Seller under a specific Project Agreement is limited to the amount committed as a Cash Contribution or In-Kind Contribution by the Buyer or Seller. Notwithstanding the foregoing, claims for contribution toward third-party injury, damage, or loss are not limited, waived, released, or disclaimed.

Article XI, General Provisions

A. "Organizational Conflict of Interest (OCI)" means that because of other contractual activities or relationships with the Government or other persons, a person is unable or potentially unable to render impartial assistance or advice to the Government, or the person's objectivity in performing the project work is or might be otherwise impaired, or a person has an unfair competitive advantage. Relevant other contractual activities or relationships may include those which exist outside of the OTA construct, such as in Program Office support contracts, or other research, development or engineering contracts involving the Government. "Person" as used herein includes Corporations, Partnerships, Joint Ventures, Teaming Arrangements, and other business enterprises.

The two underlying OCI principles are:

- (a) Preventing the existence of conflicting roles that might bias a Person's judgment; and
- (b) Preventing unfair competitive advantage. An unfair competitive advantage exists where an AMTC Member competing for award possesses-
 - (1) Proprietary information that was obtained from a Government official without proper authorization; or
 - (2) Source selection information that is relevant to the prototype project but is not available to all competitors, and such information would assist the Seller in obtaining the award.

An AMTC Member that provides systems engineering and technical assistance (SETA) support for a system, but does not have overall contractual responsibility for its development, its integration, assembly, and checkout, or its production shall not:

- (1) Be awarded a prototype project to supply the system or any of its major components; or
- (2) Be a subcontractor or consultant to a supplier of the system or any of its major components.

Systems engineering includes a combination of substantially all of the following activities: determining specifications, identifying and resolving interface problems, developing test requirements, evaluating test data, and supervising design. Technical assistance includes a combination of substantially all of the following activities: developing work statements, determining parameters, directing other PAHs' operations, and resolving technical controversies.

The exercise of common sense, good judgment, and sound discretion is required in determining whether a potential conflict exists.

OCI concerns could lead the Government to decide against award of a particular prototype project. An AMTC Member's submission of an Enhanced Whitepaper under an RWP designates no known actual, potential, or perceived conflict of interest exists at the time of EWP submission. The AMTC Member agrees that if, after award, it discovers a potential organizational conflict of interest, a prompt and full disclosure shall be made in writing to the AO, through the CAO. This disclosure shall include a description of the actions the AMTC Member has taken or proposes to take, to avoid or mitigate such conflicts.

2021-429 AMTC: Duty-Free Entry (APR 2025).

DUTY-FREE ENTRY: Unless supplies were imported into the customs territory of the United States prior to execution of a contract/agreement, Seller shall not include any amount for duty on:

- (1) end products or qualifying country end products delivered under this Agreement;
- (2) components (including, without limitation, raw materials and intermediate assemblies) produced or made in qualifying countries that are to be incorporated into domestic end products delivered under this contract/agreement; or

(3) other supplies for which the AMTC Member estimates that duty will exceed $200 per shipment into the customs territory of the United States.

The definitions in DFARS clause "252.225-7013 Duty-Free Entry" are incorporated by reference. Seller shall notify the Buyer in writing of any items which are to be accorded duty-free entry. Buyer will request the Government to execute duty-free entry certificates and afford appropriate assistance. Seller shall claim duty-free entry only for supplies that they will be delivered under this contract/agreement.
