RENT-FREE USE (VARIABLE)

Seller is authorized to use on a non-interference basis, in the performance of this contract, the below listed U.S. Government-owned property presently in the possession of the Seller under the indicated prime contract(s) for the time period(s) specified, but not to exceed this contract's period of performance, whichever is earlier. If U.S. Government property use on this contract is required beyond this period, Seller must notify the Buyer's Authorized Procurement Representative no less than 90 days prior to the period expiration. Notice must include the following information:

- 1) contract number,
- 2) identification of all other purchase contracts (Boeing and non-Boeing) using the property,
- 3) applicable using prime/customer contract number(s),
- 4) the requested time period extension, and
- 5) all items of property not identified below for which use authorization is requested.

All U.S. Government property above shall be subject to the property requirements in the Customer Contract Requirements (CCR) associated with the accountable prime contract identified below, or in the absence of such provisions in the CCR, to the property requirements in the General Provisions set forth in this contract.
