

EXPORT TAXES AND CUSTOMS DUTIES

Seller shall be responsible for and pay any and all taxes, duties, Governmental fees, and other like charges in connection with the manufacturing, sale and exporting of the supplies ordered hereunder from its country to the United States of America. Buyer shall, as the importer of record, be responsible for and pay any and all duties, brokerage fees and other like charges in connection with importing the supplies into the United States and such charges to be paid by Buyer shall not be included in Seller's prices.

Seller shall, as requested by Buyer, furnish any documentation and establish any administrative controls or invoicing procedures which may be required to properly and economically import and export the supplies and to obtain any refund of moneys paid in connection therewith.