Associated Purchase Contract (Variable)

This Contract is part of a multi-contract transaction. The aggregate value of the Contracts identified in the primary purchase contract identified below, and not the individual Contract values, shall be considered the total Contract value for the purposes of identifying a threshold for terms and conditions, certifications and representations.